

What Does a Geriatric Consultant Do?

A Geriatric Consultant is a professional facilitator who can give advice and provide information about the variety of options available in their area for elder care and services. Geriatric Consultants are not only experts in the services available; they also know the quality and costs of different providers. When a change of living situation is needed, they can help families think through the options and arrange for the right move.

